

Eastern Canada ESCAPE

Discover three of Canada's most popular provinces in Eastern Canada – Ontario, Québec and Nova Scotia.

Ontario If you're into wine, art, theatre and culture, Ontario is just the destination for you. This province is home to Canada's capital city, a natural wonder of the world, the third largest theatre district and a city that is known as one of the most multi-cultural regions around the globe. Ontario is home to the popular destinations of Toronto, Ottawa, Niagara Falls, Kingston and Algonquin Provincial Park.

Québec Walk down the streets of Old Montréal and absorb the glamorous charm of this European-like city. Step back four centuries and explore the cobblestone streets of Québec City. Québec's French-Canadian culture is evident throughout the province, making it an incredibly unique vacation destination. The province of Québec is home to popular destinations including Québec City, Montréal and Tadoussac.

Nova Scotia An Atlantic Canadian region that has evolved since 1749 to incorporate an exhilarating variety of sights, attractions and people. With sandy beaches, rugged shorelines and colorful gardens, charming fishing villages, farming communities and so much more. Truly a province unlike any other in Canada.
