Day 8 Seattle to Vancouver

Upon disembarking from your cruise in Seattle after breakfast, you (and your luggage) will be picked up from the Smith Cove Cruise Terminal at Pier 91 where you will take in a city tour of Seattle today before enjoying Rocky Mountaineer's GoldLeaf Service this evening for the journey to Vancouver.

A leisurely-paced guided city tour will take in many of Seattle's highlights with plenty of time to shop and explore on your own. The tour morning will explore Seattle's waterfront, Chinatown, and Pioneer Square, and you will have 2.5 hours to enjoy lunch (not included) and take in the sights of Pike Place Market. You'll reboard the motorcoach after lunch and head uptown to visit the Space Needle, floating homes and bridges, and the Fisherman's Terminal before arriving at King Street Station to check in for the first leg of your Rocky Mountaineer journey to Vancouver.

After boarding, toast the rail voyage ahead and indulge in a first-class gourmet dinner as you travel past the Chittenden Locks linking Puget Sound to Lakes Union and Washington as you wave goodbye to Seattle. Highlights include the fishing fleet (and Boeing jets) of Everett, the fields at the foot of the Cascade Mountains near Mount Vernon, sunset views of Bellingham Bay and the San Juan Islands beyond, and, after crossing the Canadian border, the community of White Rock as the train hugs the Pacific Coast and travels into Vancouver. Upon arrival in Vancouver, a motorcoach will transfer you from Pacific Central Station to your nearby downtown hotel. Overnight in Vancouver, D.
