Extend your journey with a resort unlike any other, by combining Sonora Resort – a five-star all-inclusive getaway in the wilderness – with a Rocky Mountaineer rail journey. Only accessible by sea or air, Sonora Resort is nestled in British Columbia’s Discovery Islands on a remote stretch of pristine coastal rainforest. But the accommodations and amenities are a far cry from roughing it. Choose from an abundance of outdoor activities offered, or enjoy the lavish on-site features. We suggest a mix of both. What better way to wind down from hiking and biking through unspoiled wilderness than rejuvenating at the spa? Or, perhaps you’ll decide to add on an eco-adventure tour, guided salmon fishing, or a grizzly bear tour. After, you can relax in the rooftop hot tubs, take in a movie, or visit the putting green. Remote, elegant, and exclusive, this five-star hidden gem is well worth seeking out.

Enjoy outstanding seasonal menus featuring local ingredients. In fact, our Executive Chef often forages the nearby wilderness for seasonal delicacies like rye berries and wild mushrooms. The dishes we serve tell incredible stories about the Pacific West Coast through flavours, textures, and colours. Of course, you can choose to accompany each bite with a sip of something wonderful from the well-stocked cellar. Chat with the sommelier about which wines will pair beautifully to take your gastronomic experience to new heights. This Relais & Châteaux resort is truly something to call home about – and yes, international phone calls are complimentary.
